THE NATURALIZATION TREATY WITH PRUSSIA—OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF ITS RATIFICATION

Washington Aug 3 The President has formally proclaimed the ratification of both parties of the treaty between the United States of America and the King of Prussia concerning the matter of citizenship in each country

H Kreismann United States Consul at Berlin writes as follows under date of July 11th to Hon F W Seward Assistant Secretary of State

I beg to inform you that in a circular dated July 6 the Prussian Minister of the Interior instructs those government officials whom it concerns that by the conclusion of the treaty of February 22 1868 between the United States and North Germany it is intended in accordance with article second of said treaty that citizens of the North German Union who have emigrated to the United States without permission of the proper authorities and thereby committed an act punishable under the laws relating thereto are not to be prosecuted or punished for such criminal act on their return to their former homes after an absence of five years, and that any judgment or punishment which may have been pronounced or decreed against such citizens by reason of their emigration to the United States without permission is not to be executed or enforced against them provided the parties have acquired citizenship in the United States in accordance with the treaty in question The circular accordingly directs the proper officials throughout the kingdom in no case to institute the proceedings for the trial and punishment, and to desist from any molestation whatever of any individual coming under the provisions of the treaty, if such individual furnish the proper proof of his having become a naturalized citizen of the United States, pursuant to article one of the treaty The Minister of Justice has moreover called on the courts of justice throughout Prussia for official reports of all cases in which judgment and sentences have been passed and still are in force, with the view of having all punishments fines and costs remitted by means of a royal pardon These proceedings, the substance whereof I have correctly given show the entire good faith of the Prussian Government in carrying out the provisions of that important treaty in accordance with the wishes of the United States and I hasten to put the department in possession of the news thereof, our Minister being absent from Berlin at this moment on official duties elsewhere I trust my giving information to the department on diplomatic matters may not be deemed improper

SOUTH CAROLINA

Columbia, Aug 7 — A bill passed the Legislature to-day reducing the bonds of State officers Mr Whipper, colored, a Republican opposed the reduction of the bond of Niles G Parker, State Treasurer, on the following grounds, which were entered on the journal

First, It would impair the credit of the State

Second The funds would go into the hands of a man who had offered straw bonds and proved unworthy of confidence by promising the bills of the State to any man who would go on his bond

Third, He was a man of doubtful character and doubtful honesty

Fourth, Improper influences had been used to play upon the credulity of members of the Legislature

A bill will be introduced to surround the Treasury with additional safeguards

The young man who was shot by the unknown members of the Legislature last Saturday night is dead There is much excitement in the community over this event

MONTGOMERY BLAIR'S VIRGINIA SPEECH

Washington, Aug 4 —Montgomery Blair's Virginia speech is printed here in full to-day It contains the statement, already widely commented upon that Frank Blair was offered the place of Vice President by those who had the power to confer it at Chicago in 1860 Montgomery says the reason he did not then accept was that he did not like the association proposed, meaning Mr Lincoln

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH

Republicans here are well satisfied with Gen Meade's order organizing the Department of the South The concentration of troops and the discharge of many persons now employed at various detached headquarters will effect a large saving The assignment of General O [illegible] Shepard to a command in Texas puts one of the warmest friends of reconstruction in the [illegible] at the head of military affairs in that State

SEMMES

Semmes arrived here last night, and talks loudly of the temper of the Southern whites He says they are armed to a man, and were anxious to have Congress send arms down there so that there might be an outbreak His boasting and defiant talk excited great disgust

A ROORBACK EXPLODED

There is no foundation for the charges made in a card of the Columbus Ashburn prisoners now being circulated at the North The President has in his hands an official report of an officer whom he sent to Atlanta to investigate the treatment complained of, which shows the utter falsity of all the material points of the card

THE REVENUE COMMISSIONERSHIP

A number of prominent officials here have to-day been trying to bring some influences to bear to induce Governor Cox to reconsider his declination of Mr Rollins' office Mr Rollins leaves for the North to-night, to be absent a fortnight

[illegible]

The interview of Baron Stoeckel the Russian Minister with the President last Friday was by appointment Baron Stoeckel presented an autograph letter from the Emperor congratulating Mr Johnson from his escape from removal from office This is held by Baron Stoeckel to be a return for the joint resolution of Congress congratulating the Emperor on his narrow escape from assassination The letter has been in the Russian Minister's hands for several weeks but he withheld it until the Alaska matter would be disposed of

IMPORTS DURING THE LAST FISCAL YEAR

The Director of the Bureau of Statistics have just completed the statistics of our imports from all foreign ports for all foreign countries for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1868 specie and bullion included The total is $[illegible] Total for the previous year $411,[illegible],101 showing a decrease of $40,000,000 Our heaviest importations occurred in March last and the whole movement is steady at the rate of about one million and one tenth per diem The tables include the returns from the Pacific coast, embracing California, Oregon and Alaska

THE POSTAL SERVICE

A paragraph recently was telegraphed here, saying among other things that the voluntarily increased pay granted by the Postmaster General to contractors on the Northwestern roads has added to the deficit of the Department I am authority for saying that assertion is entirely without foundation, and the Postmaster General under the law has no discretion to fix the pay for service on any route an increased compensation for service can be allowed only in proportion to the increase of service

Colonel W W Smallwood was to-day designated by the Postmaster General to take charge of the Postoffice at New Orleans in place of the present incumbent, who has been suspended on charges

THE SOUTHERN STATE LEGISLATURES—TENNESSEE

Nashville Aug 4 —The Senate to-day passed a resolution providing for a Joint Special Committee on the Governor's supplementary message on the franchise question The message and resolution were immediately transmitted to the House, where a substitute for the resolution was offered and passed by a vote of 50 to 20 The substitute expresses the sense of the House to be that this is an inappropriate time to consider the subject of enfranchising the rebels

A delegation consisting of several hundred citizens mostly Conservative headed by Hon John H Shackleford, Radical and ex Governor Foster, Conservative went in procession to the House this afternoon and presented a petition numerously signed by the citizens of Davidson county, praying for the immediate enfranchisement of all citizens of the State The petition was read by Judge Shackleford and after the reading, Governor Foot made an impassioned appeal to the Legislature in support of the petition He was replied to by Mr Hamilton who pointing to two or three hundred refugees from Ku Klux outrages in the galleries, declared that he would never vote for the enfranchisement of the rebels, until Union men, white and colored could live in peace and vote according to their convictions without being hunted from their homes or murdered

MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT NEW ALBANY, IND —A REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Indianapolis August 4 — At the municipal election in New Albany to-day the Democratic candidate for Mayor was elected by 42 votes a Republican gain of 700 votes Mr Hendricks spoke there at length on last Saturday, with what effect to-day's election demonstrates

New Albany has always been a famous Democratic stronghold

THE RIOT IN TEXAS—THE RIGHT OF THE MATTER

Washington, Aug 4 —The military authorities have reliable statements concerning the much-talked of riot of negroes at Milliken, Texas. There was no gathering of bands of blacks, no prolonged resistance nor any resort to fortifications. A company of twenty negroes, who were searching for the body of one of their friends supposed to have been hanged, was set upon by a rebel sheriff and some volunteered help Six were killed outright and the rest dispersed Bands of mounted and armed whites then scoured the whole section, and shot down near sixty of the negroes who were most influential among their fellow blacks

St Louis Aug 4 —To-morrow the great unwashed will meet at St Louis, in convention, to nominate candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor of Missouri There are no less than six Richmonds in the field willing to do the State some service John Phelps and N. J. Colman are leading now It is a remarkable fact that banners are being displayed with Seymour and Colfax's name emblazoned thereon Ranting, turncoat Blair seems to be in bad repute in his own city, and in his own city Democrats are more willing to risk Colfax than Blair and well they may.

THE DES MOINES COPPERHEADS BELLIGERENT

Des Moines, Aug 4 —The Democrats held a meeting on the East Side here on Saturday night, at which the speakers grew quite belligerent, talking about ballots and bullets, breathing war and vengeance and advising the mobbing of the State Register newspaper establishment This is a fine compliment to the Register, and it shows that it is stirring up the snakes in the right way

ADDITIONAL OUTRAGES BY THE KU KLUX IN TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tenn , Aug 3 —Last Thursday the Ku Klux Democracy in Lincoln county, six miles from Fayetteville took a discharged colored soldier, named Richard Moore, and whipped him until life was nearly extinct His sole offence was that he had been a Federal soldier

In the same neighborhood, early last week, another colored man was hung up by the neck until he was nearly dead, in order to make him tell where his arms were, which they had commanded him to deliver up

These facts have been communicated by a gentleman from Lincoln county, whose word cannot be impeached

CHARLES G HALPINE (MILES O'REILLY)

New York, Aug 3 —Chas. G. Halpine (Miles O'Reilly), City Register and editor of the Citizen, died this morning, from an overdose of chloroform administered to relieve neuralgic pains.

New York, Aug 3 —An inquest has been commenced upon the body of General Halpine, whose family physician gave an opinion that death resulted of the brain and spinal chord, superinduced by the accidental use of chloroform, which he had been in the habit of taking to procure quietude after excitement induced by severe mental exercises He leaves a wife and six children. His life was insured for $10,000

HON SCHUYLER COLFAX AND PARTY EN ROUTE TO THE MOUNTAINS—ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION

Sterling, Ill , Aug 3 —The announcement that Colfax was on the Omaha Express, going west was received here about four o'clock this afternoon and the news spread rapidly to all parts of the city and surrounding country. Long before the arrival of the train an immense crowd had gathered at the depot to give him welcome As but few of our people had ever seen him, the anxiety to see the next Vice President was great. The Sterling Brass Band welcomed him with the tune of "Grant and Colfax"

As the hour of six o'clock drew near, the excitement was great and soon the thundering of the Pacific train was heard and all rushed for a good position to see the most popular man in America Mr Colfax was received by a committee consisting of Nelson Mason, S S Patterson, A A Terrell, J M Patterson and others He made a happy little speech to the thousands that were present, and closed by asking three cheers for Gen Grant They were given with a will, and cheer upon cheer went up for Colfax

AT DIXON ILL

Dixon Ill Aug 3 —An immense concourse of people greeted the Hon Schuyler Colfax with a band of music reception speech, three cheers and a good time generally A short speech was made by Mr Colfax, returning thanks for this friendly reception The speech was received with great enthusiasm

AT CLINTON IOWA

Clinton Iowa Aug 3 —The regular train with Mr Colfax and party arrived here safely on time thanks to Pullman & Co , who furnished the splendid car Omaha The trip thus far has been most pleasant Here as at other places the people turned out by thousands to welcome the next Vice President The wildest enthusiasm prevailed Every sentiment was cheered to the echo. He mainly avoided politics but his patriotic references to the success of the Union ticket were received with round after round of applause

The Cotton Crop in Alabama —The South does not seem to have been so badly ruined by Radical legislation as the Copperhead croakers represent Notwithstanding the disturbances created by the loafers who make up the Ku Klux Klan the products of the South this year, will probably exceed in value all that have been raised in the four years preceding Governor Patton on giving place to Governor Smith, elected by the people at the election held under the Reconstruction law issued an address to the people of Alabama in which he takes a hopeful view of the future of the State, and of the present says "We have a reasonable prospect for an abundant crop The product will in all probability reach 400,000 bales which will at the least be worth $40,000,000 "

For a State one of the States which the demagogue Voorhees says the Republicans have turned into a desert and this $40 000 000 cotton crop of Alabama has been raised by black men, whom the same slanderer has charged were indolent paupers, subsisting on the bounty of the Freedmen's Bureau

If the lazy murdering vagabonds of the South who roam about at night robed in white sheets and wearing masks on their felon faces, were as industrious as the maligned freemen, the lately insulated rebel States would soon rival in productive wealth the valley of the Nile

Gov Warmouth —Governor Warmouth of Louisiana is a young man, being only 26 years of age He is a native of Illinois, but at the breaking out of the rebellion was a resident of Missouri where he raised a regiment and went into the war in defense of the flag and the Union The rebels of that State will find a rough carpet-bag if they attempt force He has called for troops and will fight it out with the Ku Kluxs on any line they may desire

A lady editor in the east says that if the men desire that their children should look like them the fewer jaunts they make to California the better

Davies arithmetic nets him $200 000 a year A mathematician can cut a good figure on that sum

What He Says —General David Hunter Strother better known as Porte Crayon, a distinguished Southern Unionist residing in West Virginia thus speaks of Grant

I like Grant he has got character There is no flummery in him, but force His whole career inspired me with respect We don't want education or experience or suggestion so much in the chief Magistracy as we want character by which I mean manhood, the assemblage of traits which make one an individual

What General Strother means by "character" is well illustrated by what he is reported to have said of Farragut in the same conversation

Farragut is a man of character too I remember when Banks objected to his passing Port Hudson Said Farragut

My God! General Banks this is disgraceful, sir! I am an officer of the United States navy, sir! We must pass these forts! What does it matter if your life, and all our lives are lost? What are we sir, to the United States? Do you mean to let these traitors come down, sir and fire on a United States vessel, sir, and we stand to our cables scarcely replying, sir?"

And that is the kind of man Grant is. He will make a President of character. The ticket is a national one, and we here in West Virginia like it

Meeting of Extremes —The New York Independent says that not less than fifty thousand people came to attend the rebel Convention in New York, and goes on to say.

It was a strange and motley mass, composed in most part of men who, until now have not ventured to show their once familiar [illegible] in a Northern city Four [years] ago to-day they were engaged in a murderous strife with our loyal soldiers. They were outlaws and traitors, and expected, when conquered, to encounter the fate of traitors They had projected, inaugurated and supported rebellion and now, with characteristic audacity, they come here in crowds to decide the question of a candidate for the Democratic party of the North to vote for in opposition to the Republican leader who had vanquished [them] and compelled them to lay down their rebel arms These pardoned rebels came here to decide whether Chase or Pendleton should have the honor of being defeated by Grant Ex-Governor Wise, of Virginia, and the friends of the Chief Justice, had their headquarters in the same building and worked together for the same end, and that end was the defeat of the Republican candidate for the Presidency, and it is not four years yet since the rebels surrendered Talk of extremes! [illegible] But when did such [illegible] before ?

The Girl Market in India.—The native writer of a letter in the Sahachar [illegible], one of the leading native papers in India, gives the editor an account of a sale of girls [illegible] Calcutta at which he was present When he first heard that such a sale was going on, he could scarcely believe he was living [under] the British Government; but [illegible] he found that he had been but too [illegible] informed, for on going to a certain quarter of the bazaar at Manickhunge, he saw a cluster of girls, of from two to thirteen years of age, standing up for sale The brokers were very busy summoning customers, as they received a commission of ten per cent on all the bargains effected through their [illegible], besides some trifling offerings The prices varied according to the age and beauty of the children, girls of seven ruled at about 400 rupees, an old man of seventy who [illegible] an offer of 750 rupees for a very beautiful girl of thirteen, who was surrounded by a [illegible] crowd of bidders. An exchange of daughters was taking place in another part of the bazaar. The writer of the letter, who appears to have been greatly horrified by what he witnessed, implores the editor to direct the attention of the government officials to this [illegible] save many Brahmin families from [illegible]

Mother Nature Outdone—A Cat has a Litter of Kittens and Rats.—A few days ago a favorite feline belonging to one of the "household gods" of Mr. Feldman, who [illegible] at De Soto, near Monroe [illegible] of a litter now in existence. The [illegible] seven, four of which are kittens, and [illegible] marvelous as it may appear, rats. Both [illegible] rats are of the usual size. Nine days not having elapsed, the eyes of the former are still [illegible] but the latter are wide awake and lively as [illegible] All play together, as though their relationship [were] veritable kittens, and are suckled at the same time. Aunt Tabby bestows as much attention on the rats as the little creatures [formed] in her own image, and it is fair to presume that the young Norwegians imagine themselves [illegible] This is the most practical illustration [illegible] to our knowledge of the lion and lamb lying down together Mr Feldman is quite proud of this astonishing accession to his household, and we hope will succeed in rearing the "happy family" to maturity Such a consummation will disprove the Solomonic adage that "there's nothing new under the sun"—Memphis Avalanche, July 30th

The Columbus (Ga) Sun expresses itself satisfied that it neither understates nor over[states] the determination of the Democracy, West and North, when it says to a man they are united in the resolve that this government shall not be controlled by the votes of the negroes of the South. If the Radicals, it continues, attempt in their [illegible] tion to play thus, the last card left them, they know that their silly cry of revolution will then become a fearful reality We recollect that these same chaps, four or five years ago, said they never would submit to Republican rule , but they did.

There's Salmon P

Strange that a man of his brains didn't see

They chopped him [illegible] and then used him for bait!

Straws to Tickle the Herald

A few days ago the Herald adverted to the mutterings of discontent in its party [illegible] of prominent Democrats and [illegible] pleasant state of mysteries affecting [illegible] such signs a sure foreboding of the defeat of Grant and Colfax and the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair. It was wonderful to see how these various straws which [illegible] like circumstances would have [illegible] irritated most men only served to [illegible] the cuticle of the Herald editor, and to put him in the best possible humor. He seemed [illegible] find it so easy and natural to derive [illegible] able warmth from sitting on an iceberg and to be rendered so cheerful by the sight of many departed friends that we are induced to furnish a few more straws, just to promote good feeling and to show that we are not indifferent to the happiness of even our political foes. We offer the following in addition to the numbers we have recently furnished and which according to the logic of the Herald prove two things that every loss is a gain and that the Democratic strength is rapidly augmenting by depletion.

The Zanesville (Ohio) Courant, hitherto a radical Democratic paper, repudiates Seymour and Blair, and says the war Democrats will again tear themselves loose from the party, finding themselves again deceived. It says: "The fact of the matter is they are speaking already. Consternation and anguish are in the Democratic camp. Nowhere, not even in New York, is there true enthusiasm. Gen. Sherman declares for Grant against Seymour and up to this time do all hitherto conservatives." It denounces the National Convention as "a miscarriage," and the nominations as "a swindle and a blunder."

The Cincinnati Commercial says that Mr. Henry Reed, "one of the most accomplished editorial writers in the west," has withdrawn from the Enquirer (Democratic) because he believes the time has come when there ought to be a new deal of the Democratic cards.

The Cincinnati Gazette says General Sam Carey, one of the New York soldier convention[illegible], is ready to stump Ohio for Grant and Colfax.

The Pittsburg Commercial says that Gen. J. B. Sweitzer, who served with distinguished gallantry to the close of the war, and was the Democratic nominee for Congress two years ago, in opposition to General Moorhead, has declared his intention to support his old leader, Gen. Grant, and will take occasion at an early day to present his reasons to the public.

An interior correspondent of an Illinois paper writes: "I find here a number of old Democrats going for Grant, though they voted for McClellan in 1864. Seymour does not please the people here, and Blair is still worse." That is about the way it stands all round the circuit.

Of thirty-four captains of vessels whose names are entered at the custom house at East Saginaw, thirty-one are for Grant and Colfax and three for Seymour. One declined to sign the record, saying, "his father was a Democrat, and he was a Democrat, but he would be cursed if he would vote for Seymour."

Mr. Thomas Dervin, of Jefferson, Wisconsin, an Irishman of education and influence who has been a life-long Democrat, has published a powerful letter in the Watertown Register, renouncing his allegiance to the Democratic party and urging his late political associates to be no longer duped by their political leaders, who have traded so long in the Irish vote by false promises.

Gen. Longstreet, who more than a year ago advised his late rebel associates to accept in good faith the Congressional terms of reconstruction, on the ground that nothing was claimed under that policy but what the victors in war had a right to claim, is reported for Grant as more likely to bring that peace to the country of which the South stands so much in need.

The Harrisburg State Guard says General Steedman has avowed his determination to support Grant and Colfax.

The New York Tribune has a correspondence from Niagara Falls which says: "In our town, which polls about 500 votes, there were over 60 voters who intended to vote for Mr. Chase had he been nominated by the New York Convention, but have decided to vote for Grant and Colfax since the nomination of Seymour. Quite a number of them were War Democrats. They will not touch anything tinged with copper."

A political count of the Boston Corn Exchange has been made, with the following result: Of 247 members 193 favor the election of Grant, 33 Seymour, 15 are doubtful, 3 would not vote and 4 were not in town.

The Kansas State Journal (Democratic) says: "The Democratic party has deliberately committed suicide, preferring death to life, choosing the shroud and the grave rather than regeneration and the new birth."

The Stockton Independent says: "The recantations of Democratic heresies by A. P. Dudley, of Calaveras, and his avowal of adhesion to the Union cause, have proven a heavy blow to the old party of which he has been a bright and shining light—the bright particular star of the Democratic constellation. A Democrat of twenty eight years standing, he has sickened of contact with the leprous thing which traitors and anarchists hug to their breasts and call by the once venerated name of Democracy."

The Calaveras Chronicle announces that J. G. Severance, a prominent lawyer of Calaveras county and for four years District Attorney, has cut loose from the Democracy, for whose success he labored last year. He goes for Grant and Colfax.

We might go on indefinitely picking such straws at the Herald, but these will perhaps serve to tickle the editor's cuticle quite as much as will be consistent with his present safety.

FRANK BLAIR.—The Chicago Post has the annexed:

We stated the other day that Frank Blair had been through Yale College—having entered one door and been kicked out of the other. This is literally true, but it is not all. Having been expelled from Yale he tried Princeton with a like result and then entered the University of North Carolina, which he left without graduating to avoid being expelled as before. Frank is a classical chap—a regular bachelor of black arts.

[illegible] show that [illegible] Seymour [illegible] July 1863 [illegible] urging that [illegible] the election and [illegible] promise is the only possible solution of the [illegible] ung[illegible] in the neighborhood of Gettysburg, Vicksburg and various other places the Herald [illegible] Seymour [illegible] only State [illegible] Gettysburg was [illegible] not till July 1st and [illegible] July 4th.

Concerning the help which Seymour rendered during the rebel invasion of Pennsylvania as the matter is understood in the most [illegible] Democratic circles, we [illegible] the following [illegible] Capt. [illegible] Marshall, late of the Confederate army, at the Seymour and Blair ratification meeting at Frankfort, Kentucky, Capt. [illegible] brother of Gen. [illegible], said:

Seymour was nominated as a War Democrat for the reason that no other could win. He was called a War Democrat but he did not [illegible] In 186[illegible] when the rebel troops were in Pennsylvania and the Government called on Seymour, who was then Governor of New York, to furnish troops to expel them, he answered in the same manner, if not the same language, as the Governor of Kentucky in 1861 [illegible] that he would not send them. He [illegible] send them however [illegible]

The Times says: Mr. C. A. Reed has been busily engaged for nearly six weeks on a large painting of the Willamette Falls for the office of the [illegible] in this city. The scene is taken from the west side of the river. It commences at the upper end of the breakwater, and includes the lower part of Canemah. It then runs down the river below Oregon City and includes the Falls, steamboat landing, Factory and Flour Mills, and the whole of Oregon City. The high and timber clad hills back of the town make a magnificent background, throwing everything in bold relief.

The San Francisco Bulletin pays a handsome compliment to Senator Williams. It says: "It has fallen to Senator Williams of Oregon, Chairman of the Committee on Private Land Claims, to make two of the most thorough and unanswerable reports ever made in the Senate, concerning land titles in California." Of the report of the Gomez McGarrahan claim it says: "From the hour that report saw the light there was no hope for the McGarrahan claim. It was the clear, concise argument of a judicial mind, above prejudice and shams, intent only on sifting the case to the very bottom."

MONTANA ELECTION.—The Helena Herald of the 6th gives some election returns, though though very incomplete. In Helena the Democratic majority was 244; Georgetown gave 20 Democratic majority; Trinity reported 5; Silver City, 4; French Bar, a small majority; Valley, 23; Greenhorn, 16; Blue Cloud 20 Republican majority. The Herald concedes about the usual Democratic majorities throughout the Territory. The Helena Post of the 7th says:

The vote in the Territory will not probably exceed two thirds that of 1867, and there will be a still heavier proportional falling off in the Democratic majority.

In Helena the Democrats expended largely in gas and money, and polled a full vote, but the outside camps voted light. Madison county has gone to the bad; the depopulation of that county, and the stand it has taken in favor of a hand cart railroad having predetermined the old fogies would win the day. In Deer Lodge to save the waning fortunes of the party, they put up the names of the most popular men they had and withal the majority will be materially decreased. Our Democratic "[illegible]" can trot out their roosters for it is the last use they will ever have for them and they will all die of the gapes in November anyhow. When the returns all come in it will be found that Democracy has received the hardest blow it ever had in Montana and Republicans can telegraph East that we have gained a stronger position and reduced the majority 500 votes.

STATE ITEMS

A correspondent at Oakland writes Aug. 19th: "William Childs, son of J. P. Childs, aged about 11 years, was drowned at Wilbur while bathing in a pond at that place, on the 13th inst. Deceased was subject to fits and it is supposed that he must have been taken with one while in the water."

The Mountaineer of yesterday has the following: Lieutenant Walcott at Camp [illegible] accidentally shot himself in the left leg on the 16th inst., inflicting a severe wound.

Canyon City was reported very quiet and exceedingly warm.

The Indians at Camp Harney appear perfectly contented and quite friendly.

In 1862 he was re elected to the Thirty eighth Congress, again serving as Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means. He was also a delegate to the Baltimore Convention of 1864. Since this period he has been [illegible] the councils of the nation until the period of his death. His record is known to the nation. The late hour of the reception of the news of his death precludes an extended notice of his character and services.—Sacramento Union.

Michael Culahan, aged eighteen, was drowned while bathing in the river at Blackstone, Massachusetts, on Sunday.

Mexican News

Mexican advices say that Governor Hernandez, of Vera Cruz, has returned from his expedition to Madalia, where he made an ineffectual attempt to capture the insurgent leader, Pinto. The land and sea operations undertaken against the rebels of Alvarado and vicinity had all failed and the city of Vera Cruz was full of malcontents. French, German, Spanish and American business men espouse the cause of the Governor and were aiding him to raise men and feed as well as pay for his troops. The Governor had ordered cattle in the suburbs to be seized for their use. The rebels make raids within musket range of the city and the local authorities don't interfere. The civil authorities of the city are afraid. Colonel Cuanez, with a reinforcement of 500 cavalry, was expected at Vera Cruz to scour the country around. The press of the Capital forbear to mention the defeat of Alatorre by Negrate. Alatorre was expected at Vera Cruz. THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN contains the latest telegraphic news from California—a selection of the Daily Oregonian and the latest markets, issued by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is double that of any paper in Oregon and in the particular of the Markets we take the most special care.

Single copies 12½ cents, or $3 00 per year to any part of the United States or British Columbia.

BUSINESS IN PORTLAND.—The present time is as dull in Portland as any other period during the whole year. While the farmers are at their harvest and they have as yet brought none of their products to market save what is necessary to supply the home demand. The hay crop is gathered and has been saved in excellent condition. Many tons have been brought into this market from the neighborhood. The city is filled at rates at low figures. Wheat, new crop, but the last crop are not noticed and on the prices which ranged from 80 to 85 cents per bushel. Oats are being received in greater quantity and appear to be more demand. Our merchants are preparing in the fall stocks, and for an extensive trade the latter. At present orders are filled with the retail dealers, whose chief trade is in small articles. The dull ordinary amount of work but the retail trade may be said to be quiet. The various interests in our city are being pushed forward and can find plenty of employment at fair wages and of every class are busy. But few are idle and are disposed to work. Dull times may be the cry of some, but there is no ground whatever for it, that the present inactive state of trade. In fact it may be so considered will be at all in a short time. With extensive grain crops of the Willamette valley all pouring into our market and through this channel to the ocean, we may confidently expect to see a cheering revival of our former days of prosperity as the commercial emporium of the Northern Pacific coast.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851

STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, August 21, 1868.

Our latest advices from New York are to the 20th. Gold quoted at 145½. The money market during the week has been quite unsettled, fluctuating daily [illegible] San Francisco Legal Tender quotations [illegible] [illegible] of the 20th [illegible] given last week, being [illegible] The San Francisco [illegible] Flour is firm at $1 80@1 85 [illegible] Flour remains as last week. New York wheat [illegible] market reports give California wheat at $2 [illegible] flour, $8 50@12 00. In our own market [illegible] ket, but little change is noted. Farmers [illegible] engaged in harvesting, and but little new grain of any kind is received than will supply the home [illegible] Wheat is firm at the quotations given below; and of oats there is just enough being brought into the market to supply temporarily the demand [illegible] holding off for higher prices, and buyers being in no haste to purchase until the new is more extensively thrown upon the market. The flour market shows perhaps, a little better supply than last week, prices ruling about the same, from $5 00 for country brands, to $6 00 for standard. The steamship Oriflamme arrived from San Francisco on Saturday with a full cargo of assorted merchandise. The ship Jennie Pitts, from Hong Kong, arrived on Tuesday with 800 Chinese passengers and a consignment of foreign merchandise, mostly tea, sugar and rice, to a Chinese house in this city. The bark Live Yankee, with full cargo of assorted merchandise, arrived on Wednesday. These several vessels with the ordinary trade, has given the city quite a lively appearance during the week, though the busy season with farmers being on hand, orders from the interior have not been large or numerous. In agricultural implements there is little doing, the fall trade not yet set in, while most purchases for the spring and summer are made. Business of all kinds cannot be said to very dull, but still there seems to a tendency to inactivity, which is accounted for by the warmth of the weather and the pressure of the harvest season.

Weekly Retail Family Market.

PORTLAND, August 21, 1868.

As will be seen by reference to quotations, but few [illegible] in our retail market. The supply of green fruits has increased, and prices are given a little lower than last week. Vegetables of all kinds are in good quantity, at figures unchanged, the demand being a little greater than for two or three weeks previous. Green apples are plenty; pears, a fair supply; peaches, scarce; plums in abundance. Butter and eggs are in good demand, with no surplus in the supply. Bacon is firm at the rates given, while hams are limited in supply, with no [illegible] in prices. The spring catch of fish is past this season, and pickled fish are upon the market in fair quantities. All articles for family use can be obtained at living rates, and with the exception of vegetables brought from [illegible], of the best quality. These are often in good condition, but in some instances handling in transportation depreciates their value.

WHEN you are depressed to the grave, sickly feeling of a disordered system, which needs to be cleansed and stimulated into healthy action, take a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS and see how you can be restored for a shilling.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

PORTLAND, Og'n, July 28, 1868.

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus, I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim. Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease, and lay insensible for four hours, when Dr. Jim was called, and in 30 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and asleep. I believe that there is no other doctor on the Pacific coast that could have relieved me so quick as Dr. Jim did.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

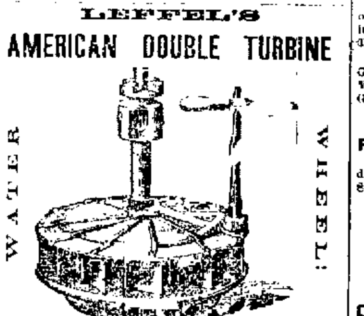
LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement on, and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute such infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel, does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement in this. He has no right to use those two tiers of buckets whether it be or with a third, or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN.

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.

A. MYERS.

H. W. SHIPLEY'S PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which, if he would only take the case to Court, would soon be played out. Don't believe him.

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.
